MINOR MENTION.

New York Plumbing Co.
New fall goods at Reiter's.
The very best cabinets at $3 a dozen at Gorman's.

One dozen cabinets and a large panel for $3.50 at Schell's gallery.
The registration board opens its books one week from next Tuesday.
The cool nights begin to cause free lodgers to flock into the city jail again.
The business men should arrange to close up Friday afternoon and take in the races.

Hereafter Beno & Co. will remain open from 7:30 in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Permits to wed have been given A. M.
Lundgard and Mary Nelson, David G.
Fitz and Elizabeth A. Whitcomb, J. M.
Fitz and Mary P. Gallup, L. D. Montgomery and Tillie M. Auerth, Fred Stutzelberg and Elizabeth Reebse.

The chiefs of police, marshals and their deputies, of Iowa cities, are to meet in convention in Cedar Rapids, September 10 and 17. Marshal Guendall will attend as a representative of Council Bluffs, and Chief Matthews may go, not having fully decided.

Jack Green, a diminutive darky, was parading Broadway in a ragged suit, but a shining silk tie, when the police got tired of his boisterousness, and placed him behind the bars. He was yesterday fined, and being unable to pay went back to the cage.

Young Hughes says it is a mistake about his throwing a cigar stump into the load of hay, causing it to catch on fire.
He says he was riding with a boy named Gannond, who was smoking a cigar, and the two getting to fooling, Hughes playfully hit the lit cigar and knocked it out of his mouth. He did not know where it had fallen, but it seems that he decided it fell on the hay, setting it on fire.
Hughes denies having thrown it at the load of hay or got into the trouble intentionally.

The funeral of little James, the three-year old son of Tony Gerspacher, was held yesterday afternoon. The death of this little fellow proves a sad blow to the parents and in their sorrow they have the sympathy of many friends for his loss.
He was a favorite child, being unusually bright and attractive. Mr. and Mrs.
Gerspacher desire to express their thanks to those who have shown their kindly feelings and sympathy in so many helpful ways during the illness of the little one, and at the time of the funeral.

William Bates is profuse in his praise of the manner in which Sheriff Gorman and wife of Wayne county, Indiana, treated the unfortunate Still. He says during his confinement there. Without losing sight of the enormity of the crime the sheriff and his wife did everything possible for the doomed man, and his relatives appreciate the many favors granted and courtesies extended. He evidently is a sheriff who has a heart in him, as well as one who can do his duty fearlessly, and his wife is a noble woman.

At an early hour yesterday morning the marshal was called up to Damon street by the report that a man named Weidman was poisoning his wife. On arriving at the house he found the man sitting quietly with his children, and the wife was not on hand to make complaint of any ill use. The man said that he worked all night, and that in the morning his wife would not get breakfast for him, and when he wanted to sleep she would not keep the children still, but let them play around the room where he was trying to sleep. He did not say he had slapped his wife for these reasons, but the inference from all the circumstances.

Among the horses which claim and merit special attention among horsemen and those who enjoy seeing a good horse is the standard bred stallion Dillard Alexander, recently purchased by Mr. Bray and owned jointly by him and Mr. Wm.
Tompkins. He is at Mr. Bray's stable, and those who want to see a horse which for form and speed cannot be excelled in this part of the country should drop in there and take a look at him. He is only three years old, is a handsome bay, standing over sixteen hands high, and weighing about 1,400 lbs. He was born in 1883, and was the winner of the great steeple chase in Rochester in 1884, making a record of 2:19 in the fourth heat. He stands the new system Macedonian breeding farm, and Messrs.
Bray & Tompkins may well congratulate themselves on securing him.

An Important Announcement.
In another column will be found an important and interesting announcement by the Council Bluffs Carpet Co., which should be read and acted upon by every one. The house being one of the most reliable in the city, when it speaks, business is meant. The special opportunity thus offered to get new carpets and other goods at prices which make them really bargains will be readily improved by many, as all realize that representations made by this house can be fully relied upon.

Personal Paragraphs.
Mayor Cleland, of Sioux City, was at the Ogden yesterday.
Ex-Marshall Burgess, of Atlantic, was in the city yesterday.

H. E. Deemer, of Red Oak, one of the coming judges, was at the Pacific yesterday.
L. C. Brackett and wife returned last evening from their extended trip east to visit Mrs. B's mother at Greenfield, Mass.

Granville Phillips, son of Mr. J. M.
Phillips, has returned to Boston to resume his course in the business college there.

William Beswick, son of Officer O. E.
Beswick, has arrived here, with his wife, from Neenah, Wis., where they have been living some time. The young folks are thinking of becoming permanently located in this part of the west.

J. W. Squire and family have returned from an extended trip to Lake Superior and other cool summer resorts. They have been absent about two months, and return greatly invigorated, having had a delightful escape from the torrid weather which has so sweltered all here.

The Fun at the Track.

The heavy rain on Tuesday night made the track so heavy that it was thought best to defer the races announced for yesterday.
The clouds were dark, and there were indications of more rain yesterday morning, and this strengthened this conclusion, so that when the clouds broke away about noon, and the track began to dry very rapidly, it was not deemed advisable to change the decisions of the early morning. The races announced for yesterday will be run to-day, and this sets back the whole programme just one day, so that the races will close Saturday afternoon instead of on Friday.

To-day promises to afford real enjoyment to those who want to see speedy and honest races. Those who saw the races Tuesday say they were the best ever had here, and to-day promises still better. There should be a crowd to witness them.

The unfinished 2:33 race will be called at 1:30 o'clock. Much interest is felt in this race, four heats having been trotted, Logan Chief winning two. Consul, one, and Rowley's Ratler one. The finish promises to be a hot contest, and the result will be watched eagerly.

The other races will be as follows: Three fourths mile and repeat, running for 3-year olds—Red Light, m. g., J. W. Cassel, Carson; Surprise, b. f., Jas.
White, Council Bluffs; Lulu Brown, eh.
m., J. D. Nicholson, Council Bluffs; 2:25 class, pacing—Mattie Stipp, b. m., J. S. Wolfe, Cedar Rapids; Jack Rapid,
g. g., C. E. Mayne, Omaha; Express, b. m., Silas Walters, Council Bluffs; Julia Bink, m. g., G. Grimes, Kansas City; Mattie Harle, g. m., M. E. Harle, Council Bluffs; Mollie Copper, b. m., C. A. Ar-old, Denison.

2:40 class, trotting—Millie G., g. m., G.
Grimes, Kansas City; Cyclone, b. m., M. E. Pyle, Humboldt, Neb.; Cyclone,
b. m., M. E. Harle, Council Bluffs; Almont Forrest, ch. s., L. J. Laws, Denver; Victor Sprague, g. s., J. S. Wolfe, Cedar Rapids; Edwin, g. g., G. Grimes, Kansas City; Fred F., b. g., J. F. Nash, Kearney, Neb.; Kitten B., b. m., A. Perry, Dallas, Tex.; General Schuyler, b. g., J. H.
Seeley, Ottawa, Ill.; My Girl, b. m., D.
Langford, Council Bluffs.

It is proposed to have Friday afternoon a special half holiday among the business houses, so that all can attend the races.
The move is to be a general one, and all should join heartily in it, closing their places of business during the afternoon of that day, affording their employees an opportunity of attending the races, and giving the Driving Park association a rousing benefit.

Consul Sold.

Probably no one horse on the track has excited so much attention and comment as the stallion Consul, owned by George H. Baily, of Fairbury, Neb. In the 2:33 race Tuesday he won one heat fairly in 2:24, and came under the wire first in two other heats, but was set back on account of fouling. In one of those heats he came under the wire in 2:22, and it is said that he can easily make 2:20.
Some stir was caused yesterday by the sale of the horse to Mr. Smith, of Maple-ton, for the sum of $10,000. Mr. Smith is the president of the Mapleton bank, and is also largely interested in horses, being the owner of Edwin Q., a horse which is also showing speed on the track here. Mr. Baily has been offered $5,000 for Consul several times, and has always insisted that he had a $25,000 horse.
It may be that Mr. Smith will find that he has. Consul is certainly speedy, and has not his best record yet.

The New Fire Alarm.

There are heard many inquiries as to what has become of the new Richmond fire alarm, the contract for which was recently made by the city. The citizens are naturally impatient for the new alarm, the present one being practically worthless. The fact is that the factory is making the boxes and getting all things in readiness to put in the alarm within the ninety days allowed by the contract. So soon as the alarm is ready to put in, a force will be put at work which will complete the system in a few days. The putting in of the alarm is shown by the fact that the new alarm is ready to put in. The council was to have a meeting yesterday afternoon to locate the boxes. The chief of the fire department has received his goods, the first piece of the new system to arrive.
The police alarm will be put in at the same time as the fire alarm, and when the system starts in the patrol wagon, which has been standing so long idle, will be made a part of the active service of the police department. The citizens need not get impatient. The system will soon be in active operation.

The Will Will Stand.

The jury in the case of the attempted breaking of the will made by Heinrich Alpen, brought in a verdict yesterday, by which the will is made to stand. By it, Mr. Alpen's housekeeper, Anna Bruhn, gets $500 in cash, and has the privilege of taking out the best cow on the place, and taking it as her own.

A Fool and His Money.

Yesterday morning a man who looked as if he ought to have known better, applied to police headquarters very excitedly desiring to have an officer arrest a dusky maiden for being an inmate of a disorderly house. He signed his name to the information, and Deputy Sheriff Dillon went down and brought the maiden up. She was as black as they make them, and when the case was called up before Judge Aylesworth, the complainant gave his name as J. E. Harris, a brickmoulder by trade, and a boarder at the Colorado house. He frankly stated that he went into the notorious house kept by "Texas," and there met the dusky maiden, who sought to win her smiles by giving her a big silver dollar. She took the dollar and then repulsed his seductive advances, and swearing a big swear ordered him to get out of the house. Then he had her arrested. The case is dismissed," promptly said the judge. "It serves you right, a white man who goes into such a place ought to lose his money." The girl is discharged and the costs will be taxed up against the white man—$4.00. Harris went off muttering to himself a vow that he would pay even some day.

Friedman's Move.

The large and centrally located building No. 409 Broadway is now occupied by H. Friedman, who within the past few days has been moving his stock and fixing up the establishment in a very attractive manner. The location has been a favorite one for years, and has been occupied by Mr. Dowling and other well known dry goods men. Mr. Friedman has made numerous changes and improvements, so that the store appears to be his. His stock of millinery and ladies' furnishing goods and notions is one of the most complete in the west, and he will doubtless find the change into larger quarters and the increase of variety and quality of stock to add greatly to his already extensive business. The move is a good one, and the ladies will not need going to visit the establishment, and invest liberally in the bargains daily offered there.

The Howling Association.
Lake Manawa is one of the finest lakes in Iowa for boating, and Council Bluffs gentlemen are determined to utilize it.
With this view a number of gentlemen met sometime ago and formed a preliminary organization.

Now that nearly one hundred names have been secured, the association will meet at Odell Bros.' & Co.'s office, 103 Pearl street, this evening and effect a permanent organization.

Owing to the fact that our lake is three miles from the center of the city, it is generally believed that a club room and gymnasium will be placed up town giving us a place when we can take visiting business men and meet some of our people. The two ideas combined make an enterprise that is worthy of the support of our best citizens, and we hope every one interested will attend the meeting this evening.

Buffalo Hunting.

In riding over the green turf of the open country—writes Alfred Terry Bacon in the September 21, Nicholas—one sees everywhere white objects which so reflect the strong sunshine that they almost dazzle the eye. These are the bleaching skulls of the buffaloes that used to roam in thousands through this region. Every one has read how, only fifty years ago, millions of buffaloes wandered over nearly half of the United States; now there are no great herds except in the territories of Montana, and from that territory more than a hundred thousand have been sent to the east in a year. For nearly every skin that is sent away, about half a ton of fine meat is left to decay on the prairie. It is a reckless waste of animal life, and I am sorry to say that our government does very little to stop it.
Within ten years there will be no more great herds of buffaloes in the United States. Small bands of them will linger hidden away in valleys, but by the time some boys who read this have lived to be old men, the American bison will probably be seen only where it is kept as a curiosity, just as the one little band of antelopes—the last descendants of the wild which used to roam all over Europe—is kept by the emperor of Russia. Still, even now, at least a half million of small bands of them will wander back here to their old grazing grounds. Last summer a party of haymakers saw a band of a dozen or more in a remote valley behind the creek. And a few days later one of our neighbors at the nearest ranch, beyond the mountains, was sitting in the doorway of his snug home one morning, after an early breakfast, when, to his astonishment, he saw a buffalo bull, captured easily along within a hundred yards of the door. He would hardly have been more surprised had an elephant or a rhinoceros happened in for morning call, for he had never seen a buffalo, nor had he ever expected to see one at his own ranch. But his surprise left him breath enough to shout, "A buffalo! A buffalo!" The housewife of the man just in from the work of gathering beef cattle for shipment; and at the startling word every man seized the nearest rifle or pistol or shotgun, and dashed away to join the chase; only one or two stopping hastily to throw a saddle on a horse. As soon as the chase began, the big beast ran swiftly into the thicket along the creek, and was able to keep out of sight for some time. The chase was long and exciting, but the buffalo's pursuers were too many for him. Some followed up his trail, while others watched the outskirts of the thicket, and at last one of the best marksmen among them, catching sight of the big black body, took a quick line aim and brought the buffalo down with a single bullet, so all the inhabitants of the ranch were feasted with buffalo meat as long as it could be kept from spoiling.
But where the great herd range, there is no such excitement about killing them.

One day a young fellow from the east, listening to the yarns of an old buffalo hunter, said, as the hunter finished his story: "It must be very exciting sport, John!" "Well, I'll tell you how it is," said John. "It's about as exciting as if you were to go out into the corral and shoot a dozen of those old dairy cows with a pistol."
